The Saint Paul Police K-9 Unit is sponsoring a basic K-9 handlers school beginning in the month of March. The instruction will be provided by lead canine instructor Mark Ficcadenti as well as other experienced, active canine handlers who understand what kind of police service dog is needed for today's police agencies. All of the trainers are certified level II trainers by the United States Canine Association. Upon completion of this course the handler will have been trained in the following areas: obedience, agility, evidence search, building search, tracking, canine medical issues, criminal apprehension, handler protection, and common case law.

To request registration material, call the Saint Paul Police Department K-9 Unit at (651) 266-5773.
